

Connection Earns Google Cloud Premier Partner Status

Secures Authorization to Sell Across Entire Suite of Google Cloud Products and Services

MERRIMACK, N.H.--(BUSINESS WIRE)--Jun. 16, 2021-- Connection (PC Connection, Inc.; NASDAQ: CNXN), a leading information technology solutions provider to business, government, healthcare, and education markets, announced today that it has earned Google Cloud premier partner status.

As a premier partner, Connection will be able to support customers across the full spectrum of Google Cloud offerings, expanding an already diverse portfolio of solutions that includes Google's hardware, software, and cloud products. This status designates a proven record of delivering exceptional customer service and in-depth technical expertise around core competencies.

"Connection has demonstrated strong expertise and proven customer success across multiple Google Cloud product areas," said Nina Harding, Chief of Global Partner Programs & Strategy at Google Cloud. "We're excited that Connection will grow its practice focused on Google Cloud and continue to support customers' digital transformations."

Tim McGrath, President and Chief Executive Officer at Connection said, "Earning the Google Cloud premier partner designation reflects Connection's focus on developing a broader set of capabilities and strengthening our position as a single-source IT provider. From Google Chromebooks, Chrome OS, and Google Workspace to advanced technologies on Google Cloud's platform, Connection continues to expand our offerings with the technical expertise, support, and resources organizations need to be more productive and secure. As a premier partner, we are committed to helping our customers realize the benefits of Google Cloud and driving innovation with solutions customized to their unique needs, goals, and environments."

Jamal Khan, Chief Growth and Innovation Officer at Connection said, "Hyperscale cloud is a strategic growth driver here at Connection. Developing a deeper and more meaningful go-to-market around the Google portfolio is an area we are keenly investing in. Our customers are looking at Connection to help them navigate their cloud journey and, by extension, their cloud managed services, application, data, automation, and AI efforts. With this announcement, I am excited that Connection moves deeper into providing the type of solutions and services that our customers expect from us, and we look forward to working with Google in designing and developing greater value for our mutual customers."

Connection's team of experts provides access to cloud-first solutions powered by Google Cloud's platform—including data analytics, machine learning, security, productivity apps, and more. Explore the full range of offerings at www.connection.com/GoogleCloud
